

spring

SEASONAL MENU

As winter's snow melts, Wolfgang Puck Catering bring a fresh palette of springtime colors to the kitchen. A trip to the farmers market in the spring reveals all the shades of green in leafy vegetables, shiny edible pods and tender stalks of asparagus. Springtime is in full color, from bright red strawberries to the golden flesh of mangos and papayas. Tender spring lamb and soft shell crabs are a delightful change from rustic meats of the fall and winter. The finest morel mushrooms are found in the spring. That first warm spring day will make you crave an alfresco evening of vivid, young spring ingredients.

SEASONAL MENU

Each summer brings a rainbow of summer fruits and vegetables. Leave the kitchen behind and let the outdoor festivities of summer begin. A trip to the farmers market in the summer is like no other. Everywhere you turn there are bright bold colored vegetables from the brightest green bell peppers, to the deepest red heirloom tomatoes. Baskets are overflowing with the sweetest melons, the most beautiful jewel-toned berries and the ripest peaches and nectarines. The summertime treasures of Mother Nature are simply prepared and transformed into the freshest dishes of the year.
